7 Chakra

TEXT BY: AURA PHOTO CLINIC. In accordance with UK law: "All goods and services are for entertainment only and are not experimentally proven."

CROWN:

The crown chakra summarizes your total energy state. When we are experiencing changes, colours in our energy field will fluctuate wildly. However, colours in the crown chakra will reflect our resonant colour.

LIGHT VIOLET CROWN:

There is enchantment and deep spiritual understanding in your path. Violet symbolizes magic, whimsy, and clairvoyance, while white represents highly charged spiritual and healing energy. A whitish violet energy in the crown chakra signifies that a deeply spiritual and magical time awaits you soon. If your psychic abilities have not awakened yet, BE PREPARED. You will begin to understand how synchronicity works in your life.

THIRD EYE (experience):

The colour seen over your brow is what you now experience for yourself. It's the colour that would best describe your spiritual vision.

LAVENDER THIRD EYE:

You sparkle and glow with a mysterious inner light. Not only are you a magical, fairylike creature, seemingly of another world, you are also a natural, clear conduit for spiritual healing energy. In your present state you channel pure, divine, white light and heal others with your presence. You have a need for quiet, harmony, and peace in your life allowing plenty of time for rest, reflection and meditation.

LEFT SIDE (OUTLOOK):

The colour on the left side is normally the vibration coming into your being. The closer it is to you the sooner it could be felt, within a few moments, hours or as long as a few months.

LAVENDER LEFT:

You are entering a time of magic and heightened spirituality. White signifies oneness with the divine. Violet represents power of the imagination and magic. A healing is coming for you and those around you. You are not a novice in the workings of the spiritual dimension. You know the beauty of white light attracts all beings at every level of existence. You are entering a time to assist others in transition or to make transitions yourself.

RIGHT SIDE (EXPRESSION):

The colour on the right side is traditionally the energy being expressed. It is the vibrational frequency most likely seen or felt by others around you. Many times your friends will think this is the energy that you are made of; however, it is what you are putting out to the world.

WHITE RIGHT:

You have a healing effect on all those you encounter. White is actually a mixture of all the colours so it contains qualities of all the colours within it. Although white tends to be highly unstable like a supernova, it is the colour of intense healing. You have the ability to be a spiritual leader.

THROAT (communication):

The colour of the throat chakra is traditionally the energy being expressed. The vibrational frequency most likely seen or felt by others around you. Many times your friends will think this is the energy that you are made of. However, it is the energy you are putting out into the world.

WHITE THROAT:

You radiate an inner peace. People are magnetically drawn to your ethereal and deeply serene personality. You naturally express your spirituality and powerful healing abilities. You trust your inner knowing and follow your intuition. Guided by your sixth sense rather than by logic, you have a certainty about which direction to take in life.

HEART (empathy):

The colour on the heart chakra is normally the vibration coming into your being. The closer it is to you the sooner it will be felt within a few moments, hours or as long as a few months.

LAVENDER HEART:

You glow with a magical and mysterious inner light. There's something different about you. You have a "sixth sense", and a strong connection with the divine. You live by faith and you believe in miracles. Always seeming to be in the right place at the right time, you are magically guided by a higher power. You work to heal yourself and others.

SOLAR PLEXUS:

The colour on the solar plexus is normally the centre vibration of your being. The Solar Plexus is associated with power, money, and is called the "money pot" by the Hindus. This is the centre of self-esteem and ego.

ULTRA-VIOLET SOLAR PLEXUS:

This colour may mean one of several things: You may be feeling imbalanced, especially in the stomach area, stressed, emotionally upset, or most likely are experiencing a profound inner experience. You are truly a "child of the new age". You may feel the energy of your benevolent guides in the very centre of your being.

NAVEL:

This energy centre of the body is about creativity, sociability, one's emotional life and sexuality. Navel is a profound source of creativity, joy and pleasure that is nurturing, healing and bonding. Many religions consider sex sinful. This belief can create a source of guilt, fear and shame. When the energy in this area is balanced; the person will probably have a healthy positive attitude toward basic love. The navel centre is the position from which one reaches out, expands and relates to others.

ULTRA-VIOLET NAVEL:

This colour in this centre may mean one of several things: You may be experiencing a time of stress in your relationships, perhaps discomfort in the intestinal area or most likely, are being inspired to take some time out for yourself, and relieve yourself of social burdens. You may shock people with your incredible insights and clairvoyant abilities.

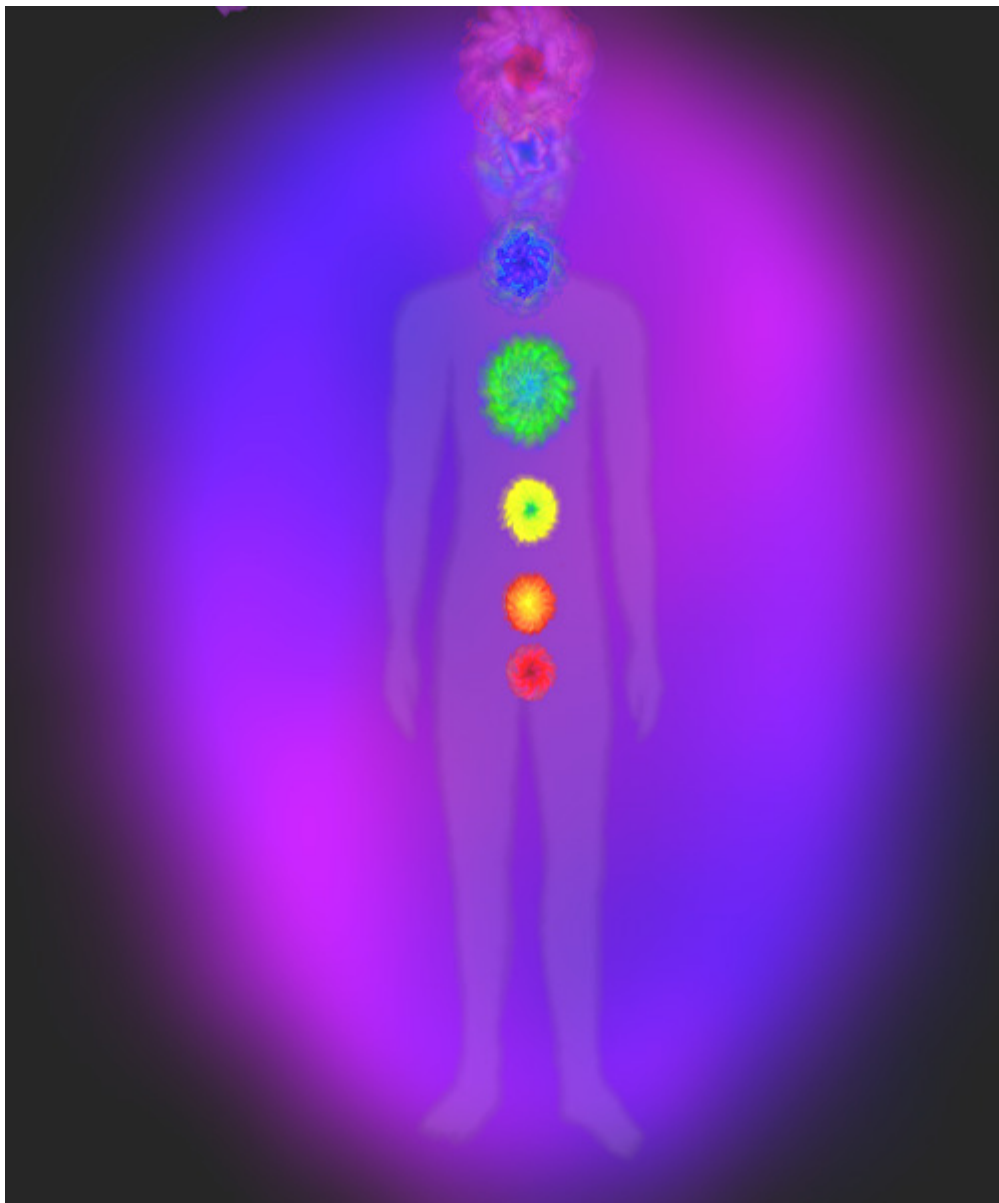

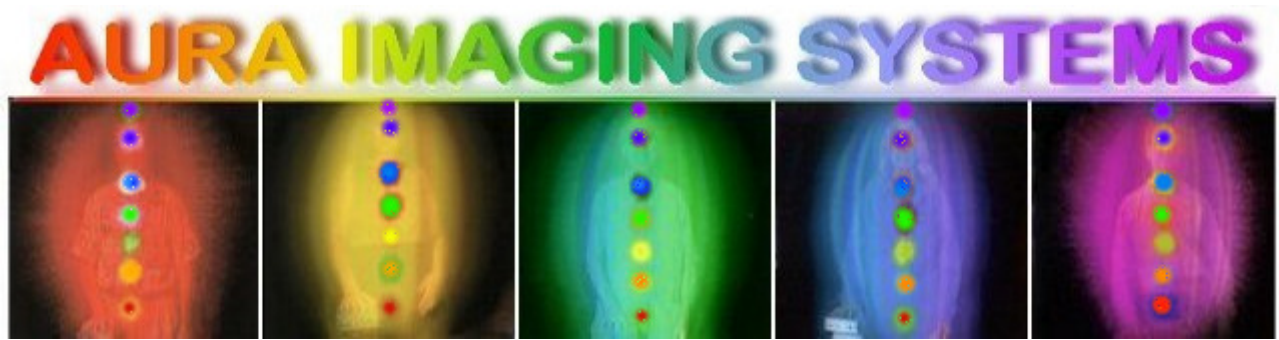

ROOT:

The colour in the area of the root chakra is traditionally the energy of the physical plane and material reality. People with strong energy in this centre usually have a red colour and possess good survival skills. This is also the centre of manifestation. If you are trying to succeed in the world either by making more money, establishing a business, or accumulating possessions, you will be focusing your energy here.

ULTRA-VIOLET ROOT:

This colour may mean one of several things: You may have been feeling a bit under the weather, with a lack of energy or drive, or most likely, have been experiencing a profoundly synchronistic period in your life, as things seem to mysteriously come to you and fall into place almost automatically. People probably see you as mystical and magical. You put the highest vibrational frequency out into the world.

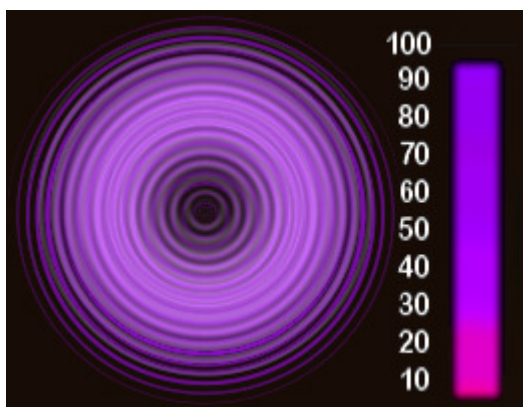

SEVEN ENERGY CENTRE RESONANT VIEW: Shows the resonant colours of each individual chakra. Report shows size, frequency and volume.

AURA SIZE: Your Aura size is made up of frequency and volume. These qualities can show how far your influence and energy can extend, the strength of your energy, and the quality of your vibrations.

FREQUENCY:

The higher your frequency the more distance your aura can travel.

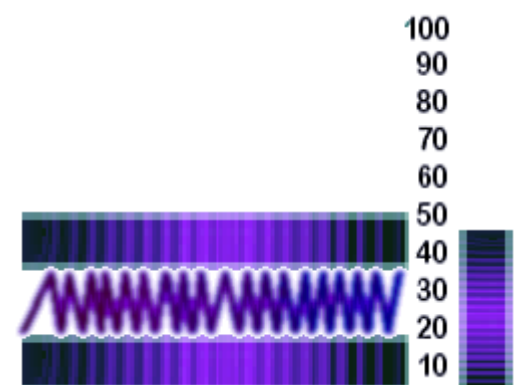

Very high frequency. Far-reaching and subtle influence.

High frequency shows you have a strong social presence. Your influence often extends a good distance.

Low frequency shows limited distance of influence.

VOLUME:

Volume shows the amount of energy you project, the intensity of your auric influence on physical things close to you, the strength of your aura, and the level of protection your energy provides.

High level. Strong physical influence limited to the material realm.

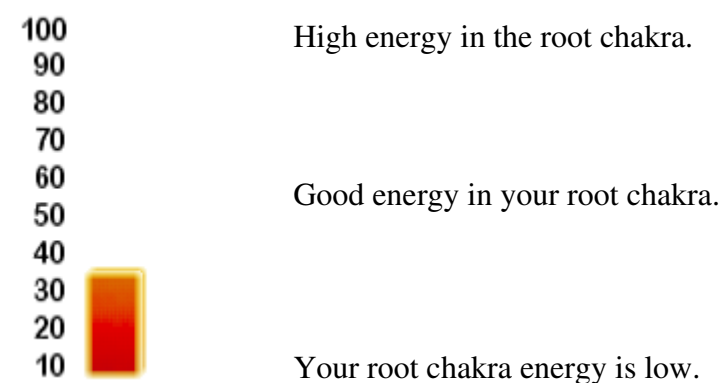

Medium Volume shows that you have a strong presence.

Low Volume. Very little physical influence.

This chakra is located at the base of the spine. The energies that physically manifest as physical stamina, wealth or business success arises here.

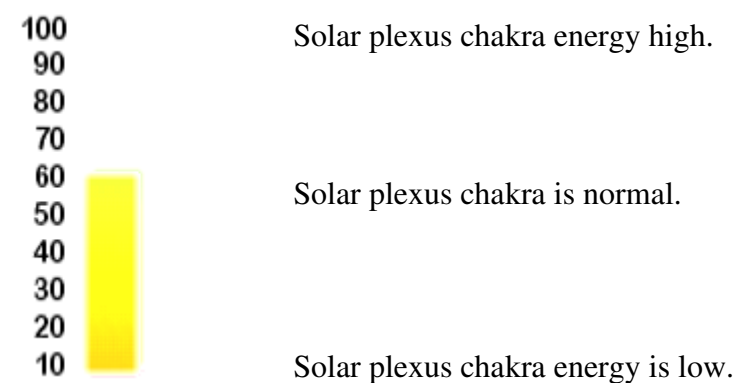

NAVEL CHAKRA:

THROAT CHAKRA:

The chakra surrounds the throat and vocal organs. The energy here manifests in our vocal, communicative, and social qualities. Colours seen here sometimes relate to feelings we wish to express, but are not yet able to. Or they can relate to our level of need to communicate.

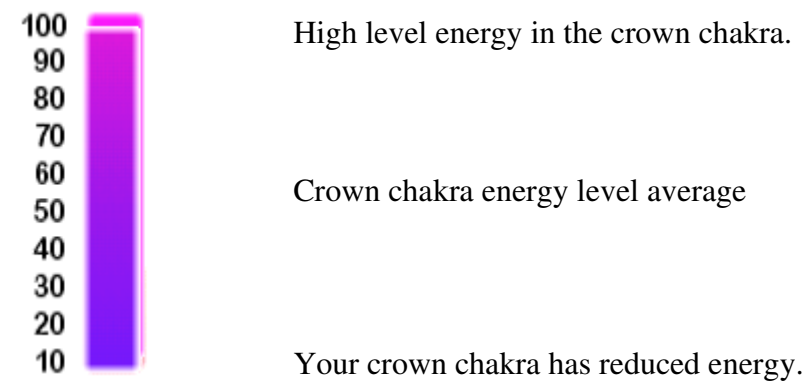

THIRD EYE CHAKRA:

The chakra is located between our eyes. Running through this chakra are the energies governing intuition, psychic abilities, and vision into the non-physical realms.

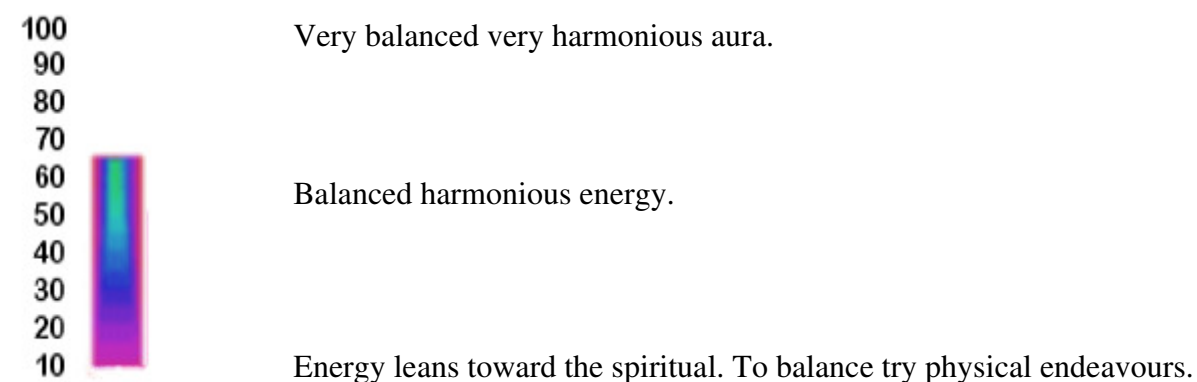

CROWN CHAKRA:

The light here is the energy bonding us with the Divine. Our enlightening and spiritual energy develops here.

BALANCE:

Graph shows resonant balance.

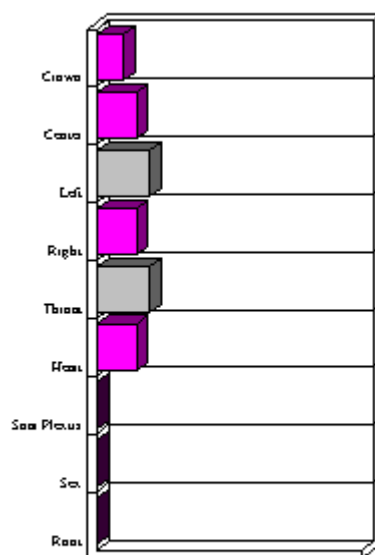

AVERAGE (overall):

The following bar graphs summarize the colour intensities of various elements of your aura. Your average aura colour is a balancing point. For example if your aura is vibrating between red and purple or white at the other end of the colour spectrum, your balancing point would be right in the middle at green. Changes in our life will fluctuate colours wildly between opposite ends of the colour spectrum. When we settle ourselves the aura colour may begin to resonate at the balancing point or average colour, and the Aura may show more consistent, resonant single colours.

Body Mind Spirit

This mind, body, and spirit graph shows in what proportions you are focusing the predominance of your energy. If the circle or pie is cut into equal sections you are a multifaceted, adaptable person, able to enjoy many various and divergent activities. You have an open mind, and are not attached to a single way of thinking or being. You are easily able to shift your awareness from one state to another without resistance. A predominance of mind indicates that at this point in time your focus is cerebral, and you are probably mainly concerned with knowledge, new ideas, problem solving, intellectual communication and creativity. You may enjoy working with computers and organizing data. You feel most comfortable when you can use logic, systems and statistics to substantiate your ideas and theories. You may see green or yellow in your aura. A predominance of body indicates that at this time you are primarily relating to the world through your five physical senses and body sensations. You feel your emotions through your body, especially the solar plexus centre, or third chakra. You may see more of the warmer colours in your aura such as red, yellow and orange. This may also be a time when you are feeling full of energy and able to enjoy and appreciate the natural world more. You may like to exercise outdoors or go camping, fishing, hiking, etc. Your physical well-being and natural environment are very important to you now. A predominance of spirit indicates that your dreams, imagination, wishes, fantasies, artistic projects, self expression, and spiritual life are most important to you at this point in time. The practical realities of life probably hold little interest to you now. You march to the beat of your own inner drummer. You may enjoy deep meditation, prayer, or artistic pursuits. Your psychic and clairvoyant abilities may be awakening, and your synchronistic experiences may be truly miraculous. You may see more of the cooler colours in your aura such as blue, purple or white.

YOUR SOUL MATE:

Your love colour can be useful for selecting a new mate or recognizing your soul mate. It can also be helpful for understanding your close relationships. Most of us are attracted to people whose colours compliment ours, because diverging colours often fill missing qualities. Couples with similar love colours tend to experience more harmony in their relationships.

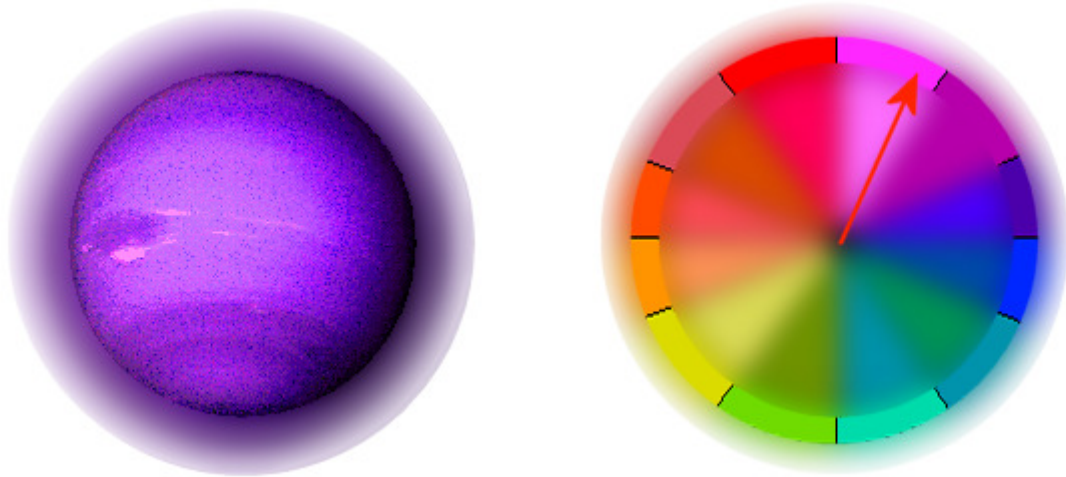

LIGHT VIOLET LOVE:

White is the mix of all the colours of the rainbow energy spectrum and represents intense healing while violet symbolizes both vision and clairvoyance. The mix of these two shades creates light violet which indicates that you are going through a supercharged, magically synchronistic healing period.

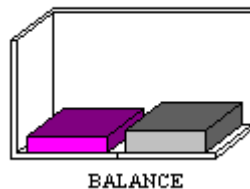

YOUR COLOUR SIGN:

If you begin using Aura Imaging regularly you will soon notice a predominant colour. You can analyse your colour sign or overall colour on the bar graph page. We also call this your resonant colour. This particular colour is similar to your astrological sun sign because it describes your general personal makeup or personality. The colour in the Aura may change dramatically due to stress, relaxation, or life transitions, but will usually return to the original pattern and predominant colour once you return to a more balanced state.

COLOUR SIGN LIGHT VIOLET:

Yours is a cool, secondary colour combining the qualities of red and blue with the spiritual qualities of white creating a receding colour. Violet is special in that it indicates that you may be highly spiritual. Your closest resonant planet is Neptune. This is a very intuitive and mystical vibration.

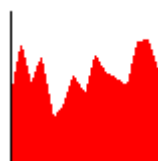

BALANCE:

Graph shows left right or YIN-YANG. If the right is higher than the left you have a predominance of YIN. If the left is higher you tend towards YANG.
